

- On the 20th day of september, 2007; at the Khanzad Hotel in Erbil, in cooperation with Kurdistan Doctor, Syndicate, after long negotiations and discussions the establishment of the Gynecologist Society was announced. Kurdistan Regional Government's Minister of Health & of Higher Education, along with deans of the Medical College, and a number of gynecologist from Iraq whom attended the event.

During the symposium, which was organized in cooperation with Al-Hikma Pharmaceutical for Medical Drugs, a brief about goals, membership and its administrative structure was given. The society of Gynecology is the first of its kind dedicated to supporting medical professions. A number of sicientific lectures were given by gynecologist.

Menopause and Herman replacement therapy by Dr. Ma'eda Shamdin.

Update management of diabetes during pregnancy by Dr. Shahla Alaaf

Prenatal mortality in the Kurdistan Gevernment (Erbil- Duhok, Suliemania) by Dr. Rund.

- On the 10th day of november, 2007, at Erbil Maternity Hall, the head of the Gynecologist's Society, Dr. Ariana Jawad visited the society's location. There, she briefed the audience about the outcomes of her visit to ACOG on the 1st of January, 2007. Dr. Ariana explained that she was recieved by the executive vice president Ralph W. Hale MD, Luella Kien, MD who is specialized in womens health, and director, Div of women's health issues of ACOG Janet Chapin.

She also announced that she became acquainted with the ACOG sections and acquired more information about the internal structure and administrative issues of the college. On the other hand, she managed to get the approval of executive director Rafael to use the ACOG logo as the logo of the Gynecologist Society in Kurdistan, with small additions. Dr. Ariana referred to her participation in the periodic meeting for the district seventh ACOG, which was held in Las Vegas

- on the 25th day of October. The meeting was attended by 20 gynecologists.

In cooperation with the KRG Ministry of Health, three members of the Gynecologist Society were delegated to Jordon to be trained on Hydroscopic Diagnostic and Operative for 14 days.

In coordination with Al-Hikma pharmaceutical for medical drugs, on the 2nd of February, 2007, six members of Gynecologist Society were sent to United Arab Emirates to participate in the second international conference for Sexually Transmitted Infections.